

From Ruin to Revival

A Study of the Book of Nehemiah

Introduction: It has been said that leaders are made, not born. Leadership is a skill that can and must be learned. In our day of moral ruin and compromise, people are desperate for leaders—godly leaders who are willing to stand in the gap.

1. Nehemiah's Person (1:11b)

- a. His lineage as a child of Israel.
- b. His legacy as a captive in Babylon.
- c. His leadership as a servant to the King.
 - i. He served as the cupbearer in Babylon.
 - ii. He served as the governor in Jerusalem.

2. Nehemiah's Problem (1:1-3)

- a. The Chronicle of His History.
 - i. The fall of Jerusalem to the Babylonians (586 BC).
 - ii. The rise of Belshazzar as the last Babylonian ruler (553 BC).
 - iii. The fall of Babylon to Cyrus, king of Persia (539 BC).
 - iv. The reign of Darius the Mede (522 BC).
 - v. The reign of Xerxes or Xerxes (486 BC).
 - vi. The reign of Artaxerxes I Longimanus (465 BC).
 - vii. The arrival of Ezra in Jerusalem (458 BC).

From Ruin to Revival

A Study of the Book of Nehemiah

- viii. The arrival of Nehemiah in Jerusalem (445 BC).
- b. The Condition of His Homeland (v.3).
 - i. Jerusalem: the Reality.
 - ii. Jerusalem: the Representation.
- c. His Concern for His Heritage (v.1-3).

3. Nehemiah's Prayer (1:4-11).

- a. He recognized his need for God (v.4).
- b. He revered the character of God (5-6a).
 - i. He is a great God.
 - ii. He is a faithful God.
 - iii. He is an approachable God.
- c. He repented of his sins toward God (v.6b-7).
- d. He reminded God of His promise (v.8-10).
- e. He requested specific help (v.11).
- f. He remembered to be persistent in prayer (v.4, 6, 1:1, 2:1).

Concluding Illustration: Luke 11:5-10