

From Ruin to Revival

A Study of the Book of Nehemiah

LESSON ELEVEN Introduction: Since the walls and gates of Jerusalem were now restored, it was important that the builders inhabit their capital city and expand the population. Of course, the rulers of the people would live in Jerusalem, but what about the rest of the people. Some of the citizens volunteered willingly, while others had to be drafted (v.1-2).

1. We learn to dwell together in the will of God (Nehemiah 11).

a. We must move out of our comfort zone.

i. Are you comfortable?

ii. Are you confined?

iii. Are you closed?

iv. Are you available?

b. We must commit to a life of holiness.

i. Living in the "holy city" is a great privilege.

ii. Living in the "holy city" is a challenging responsibility.

c. We must involve ourselves in ministry.

i. We need leaders (v.3).

ii. We need administrators (v.9).

iii. We need servants (v.16).

2. We learn to dedicate ourselves to the worship of God (Nehemiah 12).

a. The Purpose of Worship (v.24, 27, & 31).

From Ruin to Revival

A Study of the Book of Nehemiah

- i. Celebration.
- ii. Thanksgiving.
- iii. Dedication.

b. The Precepts of Worship (v.27, 31, 35, & 41).

- i. Worship with giftedness.
- ii. Worship with gladness.
- iii. Worship with greatness.

c. The Products of Worship (v.31-39).

- i. It reminds the worshiper of God's faithfulness.
- ii. It rebukes the watcher for their foolishness.

d. The Provisions for Worship (v.47).

- i. They were organized.
- ii. They were specific.
- iii. They were grateful.
- iv. They were regular.
- v. They were universal.

Conclusion: Worship is about Him. It is our expression of gratitude and dedication for who He is and what He has done. Matt Redman, a contemporary songwriter, put it this way: "I'm coming back to the heart of