

From Ruin to Revival

A Study of the Book of Nehemiah

LESSON SIX Introduction: So far Nehemiah has faced three forms of opposition. He battled contempt and conspiracy from without, and he dealt with conflict from within. In this lesson we will investigate three final tests Nehemiah had to pass. Each of these tests was aimed at Nehemiah personally. Their wounded pride would not be appeased until Nehemiah was humiliated. Their plan was simple "sack the quarterback." Now let's look and see how they tried to accomplish this.

1. Opposition by Intrigue (v.1-4).

- a. The Invitation
- b. The Intrigue
- c. The Inhibition
- d. The Instruction
  - i. "No"
    - In what circumstances should I say no?
    - To whom should I say no?
    - When should I say no?
  - ii. "Ono"
    - He perceived their aim
    - He did not provoke their anger
    - He prepared his answer

2. Opposition by Innuendo (v.5-9).

- a. The Communiqué of Opposition
  - i. It was an open letter
  - ii. It was a threatening letter

From Ruin to Revival

A Study of the Book of Nehemiah

- b. The Counter to Opposition
  - i. It was prompt
  - ii. It was pointed
  - iii. It was prayerful
- 3. Opposition by Intimidation (v.10-14).
  - a. It was suggestive
    - i. Put your safety first
    - ii. Put the Scripture last
      - The suggested area was sanctified
      - The suggested action was sin
  - b. It was "spiritual"
    - i. Their prophet was debunked
    - ii. Their purpose was detailed
    - iii. Their prophecy was dissected
- 4. Overcoming by Integrity.
  - a. Nehemiah's Dependence on His God
  - b. Nehemiah's Devotion to His Calling
  - c. Nehemiah's Discernment of His Opposition
  - d. Nehemiah's Daring against His Odds

Conclusion: Who is not afraid at times? Who is not disturbed? Who is not hurt? We all are. Yet it is precisely when we yield those fears to God and press on that we accomplish the most for Him.
